

Gettysburg College Department of Public Safety and
ASERO Worldwide

present

“Campus Threat Assessment Seminar”

The “Campus Threat Assessment Seminar” will provide threat assessment training to help identify, assess and manage individuals who make threats or engage in other concerning behavior. The training is based on research and best practices in the area of school threat assessment, including the model for threat assessment developed from the U.S. Secret Service and the U.S. Department of Education’s landmark study of school shootings. This seminar will serve as a foundation for successful threat management programs that are effective in both preventing violence and helping persons in need.

Tuesday, October 21, 2008
10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

LOCATION
Gettysburg College
Pennsylvania Hall

Carl J. Truscott, senior vice president of ASERO Worldwide, is the former director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and a former head of presidential protection and assistant director of the U.S. Secret Service with oversight responsibilities for the National Threat Assessment Center.

John W. Magaw, senior counselor of ASERO Worldwide, is the former undersecretary for transportation, Transportation Security Administration; former director of terrorism preparedness for the Federal Emergency Management Agency; former director of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; and former director of the U.S. Secret Service.

Dr. Marisa R. Randazzo, a national expert on threat assessment and targeted violence, operates in consultation with ASERO Worldwide. Dr. Randazzo served for ten years with the U.S. Secret Service as the agency’s Chief Research Psychologist.

For additional information please contact:

William Lafferty

Gettysburg College Director of the Department of Public Safety
(717) 337-6912 or wlafter@gettysburg.edu

